

FOREWORD

Driver Harry Fridkin, RASC, 211 Coy

From the "Harrow Observer", 20 September 2013:

Fighting in the Second World War, escaping from a prisoner of war camp, growing a business from the ground up, meeting the Queen and proudly serving as Harrow's oldest Neighbourhood Champion are just a few of the stories from the life of Harry Fridkin, who has died aged 99.
